

Confidential, United States Post Office,

A. W. SHAFFER,
POSTMASTER.

Raleigh, N. C., June 10th 1892.

My Dear Mr^{rs} Torgu,

Judge Russell advises me to send the enclosed to you, and possibly more hereafter - of which he will write you or the Judge, I will say no more.

Wires just announce Harrison's nomination and the overthrow of Clarkson and that infamous rascal - Jno. Williamson. It has been a hot contest and I fear has alienated some good old whil horses, but think we can pull through. Suppose the Judge is at the Convention. How is he? Have not heard from either of you for a Cow's age.

Don't think I have been very wicked, I cannot stand it to be the pack-horse and victim of everybody. All well except baby Etta - who has the whooping cough. Mrs S gives me in love to all.

Very truly yours,

A. W. Shaffer
