Dear Sir:-

Yours of the 22nd received. Your mare was served last, June 1st. I would not think it reasonable to consider her in foal until she has stood her trials at least 60 days. This is simply my opinion in the matter. You can use your own judgment.

It would be impossible for me to give your yearling colt any kind of work this fall, for the reason that I have let nearly all my men go and those that I have kept will soon be out trotting their colts and will not return until late, and will then have more of my own than they can possibly handle.

Yours respectfully,
Henry C. Jewett
D.
