

My dear Mrs. Tupper.

Thank you very much indeed for
your kind attention to my note.
Although it throws
away my last note
of Shobin's night,
and throws me on
the mercy of the puzzle-loving
public.
I am, yours truly,

disappointed to
find myself misled.

But, if Mrs. Tupper
is not Helen Campbell
she is that much better thing, a kind and
considerate woman
in which, among
those who salute her
is

most cordially
Ruth Hall
Catskill.

July 4th 1892.
