My dear Judge:

Your letter of June 30th is at hand. I wish your suggestion could have been made a little earlier, so that we might have had an opportunity to follow it. Mr. W. E. Curtis, of the Bureau of American Republics, is to give two lectures this month on the Present Condition of South American Republics. Our program is so full that I do not see how we could very well avail ourselves of this opportunity. I am very sorry.

Thanking you again for the suggestion, I am,

Yours sincerely,

George E. Vincent.
