The Inter Ocean.

Chicago, July 15th, 1892.

Judge A. W. Tourgee,

Mayville, N. Y.

My Dear Judge,—

The enclosed letter from Mr. J. C. Morris you will observe was sent me last April, but I have never found opportunity to read it until to-day. While I do not think enough of it to give it place in the Inter Ocean still at the same time I want to say that it is the best defense of what they call "The Lily White Republicans" in Texas of anything I have seen. While it is in many respects very sophistical in other respects it shows that the man has given a good deal of thought to the matter about which he writes. I have an idea, however, that his judgment was warped by commercial or social experiences. I think, however, he is an honest man. He undoubtedly thinks he is a good Republican and he evidently is not a negro hater. I do not agree with him at all but at the same time I thought that you might like to read what a man of that character said. If you have not time or patience to read it throw it in the waste basket as I do not care to have it returned.

Very Truly Yours,

Wm. Brewster
