

Young's Hotel,

Boston, 19th Oct^r 1892

My dear Judge: I have not answered your letter for no better reason than that I didn't answer it at once but laid it aside for consideration,

I am so situated towards B.A. that any strong demonstration of mine if it resulted badly would be deemed not hostile to him but the party on which I rely for what slow progress this world is capable of.

If we don't see what help

2

Young's Hotel,

Boston, _____ 189

a greater devotion to liberty would have been to us in this contest I shall be surprised. Nevertheless human action in mass is so dependent upon things the relative strength we all misjudge that I may be all wrong.

It is quite likely that business interest will play a large part in this game which has thus far been all beyond example.

I hope you and Mrs Touque are well
Sincerely J. P. Keed