

Judge A. W. Tougee,

Dear Sir:

If it is not asking too much, dare I beg that you will do me the great honor to transcribe your poem, "Into the mist that lay," from your story, "An Outing with the Queen of Hearts", for my collection of autographs? The favor would be valued, indeed. I already have your name in my collection, but would have the greatest pleasure in possessing one of your poems.

I have the honor to remain

Your obliged servant,

Gustav A. Rodell.
