

Personal

Bethesda, Ky.

Jan 27, - 1893.

Judge Tourgée,

My dear Friend:

I concur
in your suggestion, in regard to a clerkship as the most available opening
in the East.

One might get an independent start sooner in
real estate, in the West,
providing he has sufficient
means and a knowledge of the business etc - other things being equal.

The examination, for graduation from the Law Department of the Iowa State University, admits students to the bar of that state.

The Board of Examiners is composed of members of the bar and U.S. Circuit Judge, who issues certificates along with the diplomas. I was admitted, under my right title - Cleveland.

These inside facts would profit me nothing with the best of people and are, for that reason, kept in abeyance - unless compelled to face them.

In that case I should do so. Otherwise it is like a reputation that has to be defended in the courts. I shall simply take my name and go along - ignore all behind.

My friends here are anxious for the book "An Appeal to Caesar"; also, circulars No. 1 and 2. if there are any such.

Please find $1.00 enclosed for the book.

Faithfully yours

J. S. Robinson