

192 St. Charles St., Elgin, Ill., Feb. 5, 1893.

Judge A. W. Pogue,
Mayville, N. Y.

Dear Sir: For two years I have been an almost constant reader of the Bystander's Notes in the Inter Ocean.

I feel as though I had been "schooled" under your tutor-ship, and have a high respect for your opinions and principles.

I am hardly more than a youth, only twenty two years of age, but I feel that one of the paramount duties ^{of life} is to train myself for citizenship with an intelligent interest in all affairs concerning the welfare of my fellow men.

I would like to make a request, feeling that you are well able to grant it, should you deem it worth your while I would like to have you write in your "Notes" what you think about the justice of the Single Tax Theory, as advocated by Henry George, Dr. McGlynn and others - and which is being tried in Hyattsville Maryland.

Hoping this may interest you and assuring you that such a favor would be appreciated, I remain,
Yours sincerely,
Chas. R. Earnes.