My dear Sir

Your favor of the 6th instant was received this morning. In reply permit me to say that the matter has already gone to press. (Wednesday is our publication day) and cannot therefore be recalled. It will have to stand for what is worth and it is worth a great deal, I think. Jackson is a Tennessee Democrat. If Harison proposed to appoint a successor to Samar it was his business to appoint a Republican. If he did not, not

By and decency would have suggested that he leave the matter to Cleveland. Your original view is the entirely correct one. I am satisfied to father it.

Very respectfully,

Thomas Fortune
