SUBSCRIPTION DEPARTMENT,

No. 47 EAST 10TH STREET (5 DOORS WEST OF BROADWAY),

New York, Feb. 10th, 18 93.

Dictated.

Mrs. A. W. Tourgee,

Mayville, N. Y.

Dear Mrs. Tourgee:-

We enclose another letter from Dr.

Brinton, just received.

We replied that inasmuch as you have served us with a notice not to send him any further moneys on account of the Judge's books, we shall be obliged to wait until we hear from you before doing anything more in the matter.

As we understand the case you claim that Dr. Brinton agreed to release you from any further payments to him as soon as Blair should do so. He denies that he made such a promise and we are unable to see how you can prove it.

We suppose it goes without saying that we should prefer to pay the money to you, but we don't want to pay it twice, and if you propose to go to law over it, we think we shall either have to hold the amount or ask Dr. Brinton to give us an indemnity bond.

Yours very truly,

Fords, Howard & Hulbert

Upon reading this over it sounds

as though we were standing up very straight, with a high collar on - but we don't mean it in that spirit at all.
