

NEW YORK, Feb 19 1893

Dear Mr. Torgue

We have you
of 15th was looking.

We did not do not doubt you but in the plain matter; we wrote to him as a matter of courtesy, & expecting his confirmation of the change (since the other notice, at first, came from him) the make no reply. We mention it only to show you how we are getting pined in!

We have written again to Printer, whose last letter says that he shall probably demand his part, & we can pay it to the Court as you suggest, & it can be ought not — the expenses, if he establishes his case as he expects to, to be chg^d up still to the ap.

Now the cat will finally jump we can't say, but we hope that somehow it will be settled without law or trials, always a business and delicate matter.

I am truly
Dear Sir

J. H. H. H.

But I have good things of the "Sunset Sea" at least I have but the papers & is late in ready it.
