

"There must be an international copyright arrangement. England has done her part, and I am confident the time is not far distant when America will do hers. It becomes the character of a great country, firstly, because it is justice; secondly, because without it you never can have, and keep, a literature of your own." — CHARLES DICKENS (from a Speech).

Mrs Emma K. Tongue

Dear Madam

In reply to yours of the 15th we beg to say:

We have on hand 383 copies of "Puttens Pan" bound in cloth, and we will sell them for 30 cts per copy, free of copyright.

Do you not wish to buy the plates?

Yours truly

Roberts Bros.
