

J. H. DURFEE desires to express sincere thanks to those who have so generously remembered, by their contributions the suffering ones in the South. Especially would he thank Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Murphy for a box of very useful clothing, and M. D. Hoy & Son for four complete suits of clothing for men and four coats, seven vests and one complete suit for boys, all new and in good order. "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto Me."

EXPRESS COMPANY,

Woodstock, Ills., July 20 1893

A W. J. J. Esq
May 20 1893
The Courier

But went forward by Express July 15 - 1893 to destination
Another Chap secured 100 yards of heavy galvanized wire and we hope it will reach some of the birds loved ones a piece of sunshine to some soul - Heavy thanks for the two lost bystanders hammer away - You are doing the birds

Dear friend
Your reward is certain to I feel sure you are getting it in the good
you are doing
Sincerely
A. H. H. H.

CHAUTAUQUA COUNTY NY HISTORICAL SOCIETY 2013