My dear Mrs. Touger -

I am sorry to hear you are in such trouble - but I am glad to know it is no worse, I will manage the matter with Barlow as you request with pleasure, do not worry about him or the examination while your matter is in this condition as I shall try to save you any trouble while she continues with you, I hope you and the Judge are now at the end of your troubles and that the long lane will take a favorable turn, and the long night that is darkest just before day is about to break into a dawn like that of a June morning, How is the Judge and the daughter? I hope well and cheerful, with best wishes to all Truly your friend, Ad. Moot
