My Dear Sir:

A representative of the Union Park Cong. Church requested me to learn whether you would be at or near Chicago, again soon. Some one from their society was at our club the other night and enjoyed your talk so much that they want you to lecture to them.

If you will advise me in the matter I will, in turn furnish the information to my questioner and they can take any action they see fit. — I was pleased to see the affair at our club pass off so nicely. I enjoyed the talk very much. awaiting your reply, I am,

Very Truly Yours,
Guy A. Richards.
