

Washington, D.C.

Feb 27, 1893.

Dear Judge:

Please accept thanks for your favor of the 24th instant. We are quite in accord with regard to Mr. Snapp's rebuttal.

We can never reach the better class of whites through a race newspaper, in which their social and church life matters predominate. I am thinking of seeking to reach the friendly whites by launching a high class monthly. Just a word of opinion from you on the wisdom of the venture.

Yours truly

4 Cedar St,
New York.

T. Thomas Fortune