

POSTAL CARD ONE CENT.

United States America

THIS SIDE IS FOR ADDRESS ONLY.

Albion W. Tourge L. D.,
Mayville,
N. Y.

Library of the University of Rochester.

DEAR SIR:

ROCHESTER, N. Y.

As one of the Alumni of the University, you are urgently solicited to send us if possible two copies of any BOOK or PRINTED ARTICLE of which you are the author. One copy will be preserved in the "UNIVERSITY ALCOVE" of the Library, and the other will be placed in the N. Y. State Educational Exhibit at the World's Fair in Chicago, and later in the N. Y. State Educational Exhibit at Albany.

The "UNIVERSITY ALCOVE," in the University Library, is devoted to the publications of Alumni and others connected with the University.

Will you kindly reply to this as soon as possible, so that we may get our exhibit together at the earliest possible date, as the time is short?

Your attention is called to the fact that the Library building is fire proof, and that rare or valuable books, manuscripts, historical relics, or anything else of literary interest, can be deposited there, temporarily or otherwise, under special conditions of safety, care and usefulness to scholars and to the cause of education.

March 1, 1893.

Very respectfully yours,

ARTHUR LATHAM BAKER, Librarian.
