

Great Opinion Bk.

Mar. 2 1898

Dear Sir

Your favor of Feb.
13th rec'd. herein for the same The matter referred to is a claim of 125 dollars against the Educ. Publishing Co. of Jersey City N.J. 254 is an incorrect answer to 10 word riddles, is called and is so as a forfeiture as explained in the printed matter enclosed, from which you will also understand the nature of the case. Of course I claim my answers are correct though different from Those selected by the tes. and a rate reward is to be paid for every correct answer without qualification or restriction.

Now the questions to be settled are plainly these 1st Are such claims valid and collectable by law?
2^d Am I entitled to them by the terms and conditions of the proposition?

With this brief explanation I submit the case to your consideration and await your reply

Yours truly
David C. Cattraue