58th William Street.

New York, March 2, 1893.

Mrs. E. K. Tourgee,
Mayville, N.Y.

Dear Madam:

We have received a letter from Messrs. Blair & Phelps dated to-day, saying that the original release was returned to Mr. Phelps this morning from the Dead Letter Office, owing to mis-direction on the envelope, and has been re-mailed to you at Mayville.

We enclose herewith the letters which you enclosed in yours of the 13th of February.

This, we suppose, closes the matter.

Yours sincerely,

Logan Clark & Demond

Should be glad to hear if the release came to hand.
