

BLAIR & PHELPS,
COUNSELLORS AT LAW,
UNION TRUST BUILDING,
80 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

CHARLES K. BLAIR,
CHARLES HENRY PHELPS.

March 2, 1898.

Mrs. Anna K. Tourgee,
Mayville, New York.

Dear Madam:

I enclose herewith the letter and contract sent you December 27, and which have just been returned to me through the Dead Letter Office, owing to my misdirection of the envelope. I deeply regret any inconvenience that my mistake may have caused you and beg you to accept my apologies. As you will see I directed the letter all right, but in some unaccountable way put "Ithaca" on the envelope, probably owing to the fact that Mr. Blair was there at the time and Ithaca was running in my mind. The papers just came to me this morning from the Dead Letter Office and I forward them to you at once.

In any future communications as to this business, please address Mr. Blair as I know nothing whatever about it and do not wish to be drawn into it.

Very respectfully yours,

Charles Henry Phelps
