

6710

Chicago, Ill, March, 4.
Judge A. W. Tourgee,

Dear Sir:

I received your kind letter and have not expressed my thanks sooner because of several unexpected delays in the publication of the Review, a copy of which I now send you. I hope that our first issue will meet with your approval.

Feeling, that I may best thank you for your contribution, by following the good advice which it contains, in regard to being funny and original, I am
Yours truly O. L. Reid.