

Pine Bluff Ark. Feb. 7th 1893.
To Judge W. W. Loring, Mayville

Dear Sir, I promised yesterday to refer to you as to whom to send the extra bed clothes, for their comfort, it is just as good as I can afford I would like to have it and there are many persons that should have this report that I am unable to put in because of the rush of my wife in my absence and soon I have not kept a record of myself However I have made the distributions under the idea that I am God honest that you cannot name all the tramps that have knocked at your back door for bread at dinner of times and sundry places

I want you to believe and to know that my heart is in the work, honestly and that I do not fear the people to my steward ship, but I fear my conscience which is my only guide, like St. Paul "I serve God because it is pleasant to my own conscience,"
