

Livonia

May 8, 1893.

My Dear West

A fatal accident
of course our endeavours to meet.

Now I am unable to devote any time to the matter owing to my
aunt, Mrs. W. C. C. C.
She is with me for the purpose of rest - from overwork. She continues to improve as rapidly as during the last week she expects to return to Buffalo in how what success Mrs. Buchanan in teaching Latin in the college.

I must do what is best in this my regard - rather than make what she pleases. I'm sorry that could purchase such a poor lot and bear my own expenses & be liable for that more at Cambridge; but since the more success is had and less expense, and the less we could consider in the way we will

the last week in March of one does at then I know of no reason why I could not entertain you.
Or, you can go to your window more conveniently why not do so. I think you will understand each other's ideas in this matter. But whatever you decide upon I am sure will be satisfactory to me.

The real doubt in the matter is dependent

Donatiers and that our majority will vote highly & take.

I have just returned from Buffalo where I spent two weeks. I thought of asking you about running in there, but I was kept so occupied with my sister that I could not find an opportunity, then I thought of going to Newark, but Mrs. Burlingham requested me to come to Castile, but I was obliged to abandon all these plans.

Sincerely,

D. T. Hughson
