My dear Mrs. Tourgee:-

The letter you enclose, to Barlow, is quite as good as anything I can suggest, and I see no reason why it should not be sent.

I am glad to hear the good news concerning the improving health of your family.

Barlow hopes, of course, to get an offer of settlement, but I should never give such a creature one cent. The letter published last winter did him good. I think, if I were you, I would have an application made to modify that order by requiring your examination to be had before the County Judge. It can be put on the ground of your delicate health, and the health of your family. The order being thus modified, the Judge could rule on improper questions asked you, and I think the examination could not last over two hours, and you would not be at the mercy of a tedious examination at the hands of a dull man like Barlow. If you wish an attempt made to get a modification of this order, let me know and I will see what can be done.

If you wish this done, do not send the letter to Barlow until after we have made the application.

Very sincerely your friend,

To

Mrs. Emma K. Tourgee,

Mayville, N. Y.
