

From FORDS, HOWARD, & HULBERT, Publishers, 47 East 10th Street, New York.

---

Dear Aunt. Mehroff 93

I am printing some Eastern circ. with A.W.T.'s books on the back & with send you some as per request.

Beautiful it is an easy & wholesome answer to inquirers: "You can get them through any bookseller: if he hasn't the one you want he can easily get it, & will if you order it." — There is of course a trifle more profit on books ordered direct; but it is a good thing to have the booksellers know that there is a continuous demand. They are more likely to keep the books in stock. As a rule they are slow to order any old book without a certain customer for it.

I wonder if your Columbian Pub. would meet of a page list of Tule's books in back of "Sweet Sea"? They are "author's books," you know.