Dear Sir:

Yours of the 18th at hand; we really think you are hardly fair to us in reference to the enclosed letters. Observe that you wrote at first, upon a slip of paper, without heading of any kind; we made careful inspection of our books at the time but did not find your name there and we presumed therefore that you had, as is quite natural with residents of Philadelphia dealt with us for cash. It is needless for us to say to you that we shall always be delighted to charge you for whatever you shall need in our line and the greater the amount the better we shall be satisfied.

We have sent a quantity of eyes, from which we trust you can make selection.

Hoping to again hear from you on the subject, we remain,

Yours truly,

QUEEN & CO., INC.

Kindly return the enclosed correspondence
