Dear Sir:

You may remember that in June, 1890 you delivered a commencement-address at the exercises of the Buffalo Law School. I was talking to Judge Hatch about the address which he is to deliver in June and he expressed great-curiosity to see yours, if it could be obtained. I volunteered to write you to see if the address was in front and, if so, where it could be found. If the address had not been put in front I thought that possibly you would be kind enough to lend it to me to show to Judge Hatch. If you will do this it will be a favor both of us would appreciate.

Yours very truly,
Charles P. Norton
