Judge Albion W. Tourgee,

Mayville, N.Y.

Dear Sir:-

I send you to-day specimen of type for your selection. I am inclined to think that I like the long primer old style ~~it~~ <sup>it</sup> looked the best of any of them, although the sample pages of the book ~~they~~ <sup>they</sup> which is of a small pica, is very good. If any of these please you, and you are willing to decide upon them, kindly let us know and we will make definite arrangements for the work.

When do you expect the manuscript will be all completed. The printers say they want to set the book up in galley first and then put in the illustrations afterwards, same way with the additional chapter headings. As I have written your daughter to-day I do not think any great harm will be done if the book is not ready until the middle of May in time for our travellers when they start on the Fall trip. But we want the material as soon as possible, so as not to be too much hurried in the manufacture.

Yours truly,
