

March 20, 1893.

Judge Albion W. Tourge,

My dear Sir:

I have read with great interest "A Bystander's Notes" and in more than one instance my people have heard from them. The enclosed clipping sent from the Chicago Standard, a denominational paper. Its statement is not in accordance with what I supposed was the fact. May I ask you if it is substantially correct.

Yours most respectfully,
Francis H. Rowley.

Should the statement not be correct I shall be glad to help in the work by replying to it.