

Marshallfield
Settle, Yorks.

6 April 1893.

Dear Madam
I send you
to accept my kind remembrance
to all your family.

Friend
Sincerely yours
George

I dispatched yesterday a little roll of photographs which my eldest boy has taken during a visit to you. He will be greatly pleased if Judge Sargie will accept them & I must add that they are a very good proof of the pleasure he experienced in reading

"Sigs & Shills".

My kind regards
family & in great admiration.

As a little to cheer the rest of the family
I enclose a few
same.

preparing for his medical life is a very jagged and course. To-day we are and they have little to ending off the little make them happy. Many case of baskets for you of them walk many miles daughters. I do hope they daily to come to Miss Stungis will reach her safely. They little school of industry. will give you some the & lantern slide will little idea of what the interest you, I think and now little brick works, as soon as I can get it can produce under rule. you shall have the choly conditions for their account of her work.

My subscription to your society will be due very shortly - I wish it were possible to me to give greatly publicity to your efforts and thus bring in help to your funds. I have distributed the pamphlets & could send out more if you would kindly let me have them & any other suitable literature; if all O.K.
