

491 W Adams St
Chicago 4th June 1893
Mrs Albion L. Spurgeon
Mayville N.Y.

My Dear Madam;

A very pleasant-surprise was your line of the 6th Inst. There are few things that I like better than to be remembered by those held in honor and affection. I honor and love Judge C. for head, heart and courage. I shall take an early opportunity to call upon him-and were it not for painting, kal-somining, and scrubbing in our house I should hope to induce him to become an guest while in Chicago. What pleasure I shall have to fancy as the house is literally "born up," and our "Happy Home", would accord in its present condition with his fastidious tastes, I am proud I doubt not by his orderly and loving wife. I judge from your note, that you will not be here at this time.

Some time, may we not have a home visit from you and your husband? You would like my wife, and for the sake of my sister and her graces you might tolerate

Your True Friend
A. C. Hewitt.