Dear Sir

Judging from your letters in the Inter Ocean, you are no doubt well posted on the condition of the Negro. I am a Negro, and looking upon you as one of the truest friends my race ever known I beg your advice on the following. Would it do for a colored company to go in the North, and East, and present the black man's wrongs in an opera play such as ballot box robbing, mobbing, and such. I am a laboring man so you can see my meaning better than I can tell it. Hoping to hear from you on this I am

Respt.

Jno M. Atkins.
