

6875

Lincoln, Ill
April 20, 1893.

Editor, Sub. Ocean:

To ~~the~~ relieve the monotony of the "Bystander's" vilifications and abuse of the South and everything pertaining thereto, I suggest that you might give us a chapter on the lynchings of that region in Kansas last week. He might also give one on the treatment of that one in Midwestern some days ago, and others that might be mentioned.

Very truly,

H. P. Russell