Dear Emma

Mrs Bail

transmitted me her card (which enclosed) this morning with her revised terms. As this is her card with the advice of her parents, Mr & Mrs Bennett it is doubtless, final I would have been better to have settled
the matter before sending out any terms but being a young house keeper may be excused I should say her

Terms are now as reasonable as can be found for the same accommodations, there will be no trouble about transportation for any one who can walk three or four blocks.

I have but a moment in which to write. I hope matter is better by the time

Yours
Dannie
