My dear Cousins,

I learn through Cousin Willie that your plan is to go to Chicago about the middle of June. We would love to have you come and make us a visit on your way. Going by the Erie road, it would only be from Marion, (forty-five miles) out of your direction, and we should be so very greatly delighted to see you.

I can't tell you how sorry month, but have been anxious for changing my mind, and perhaps may not go before fall.

Hoping you will not pass us by.

With much love

Your cousin

we are about the loss of the pictures and other things.
Still if the fire had occurred in the night there might have been personal injury, which would have been worse.
After two weeks of very warm weather at the beginning of April, we returned to cold, wet, weather. The rain fell in torrents, the river overflowed its banks and spread out to a lake. But now it is pleasant again, though cool.

I had for some time thought I would go to Chicago this
