May 18, 1893.

My dear Mrs. Tourgee:-

I enclose you a letter just received from Barlow.

If you keep your accounts in shape, so that you can give the information he wants, you can do better than I can. Probably the best way to meet his demands would be to make a carefully itemized statement, if you can, and draw up the statement in the form you are willing to give it to him, and then appear there and tell him he must take that statement or nothing; that you will not be cat~~ch~~ised at length. You could thus draw the statement in good form, and cover all the points as to which he has any right to enquire, and I would even go much farther, and cover the subject fully, as you have nothing to conceal, as I understand the matter.

I enclose you a copy of my reply to him, which please return to me, with his letter, which I enclose herewith.

I have not time to sign this letter before going to Court.

Very hastily yours,

To
Mrs. Emma K. Tourgee, Mayville, N.Y.

Adelbert Moot.
