

6774

The Cosmopolitan Magazine.
Editorial Department.

New York, May 20th, 1893.

Dear Mrs. Tourgee:

I need scarcely say that you are very welcome to the use of your daughter's drawings. I will have a search made this morning and if we can find them, they will be mailed at once. Unfortunately, originals are very often given away, so that they may not be in our possession.

On the first of July we have in mind a move of a character that your husband will appreciate. I will be very thankful if, when it is made, he will take the trouble to send me a word or two giving me his opinion of it.

Yours sincerely,—

Mrs. A. W. Tourgee,
Mayville,

I have just learned the