Judge H. H. Fouge
Lawyer
Dear Sir,

I will beg now to take advantage of your kindness in permitting me to send you $1.00 for your reading and opinion.

I printed piece that you kindly referred to in "the Texas Magazine, the Round Table" published at Dallas.

I hoped to prepare something upon a different subject from either of the two, but was prevented by lack of time, as my business claims all of the working hours of the day.

I will ask you to give me your opinion of my little production
