

and; also, judging from them, your opinion of what I might be able to accomplish; and, whatever advice you may see fit to give, will be gratefully accepted.

Very Respectfully

Orville N. Howard.

Street.

Lourens

— England

May 25 1793

Dear Friends

at Mayville (N.Y.)

In case Mr. Arvon
has any opportunity
to call on you, this is to say that he does
so at my especial
wish - He is one who loves Justice & Right.

has taken a prominent daily paper - He helpful part in "Manchester Guardian" establishing our "Society for the Furherance of the Brotherhood of Man" in one of our principle
cities, ^(Manchester) He is sub-editor of one of our most influential
right minded
papers - If you can give him the opportunity of any conversation
on the "race question"
give him new ideas
of how we may bring British sentiment to bear for good on American sentiment - it will

Certainly do great good.
He will communicate
to us all on his return - ~~Mr~~ Already there are 12 branches or ^{branches} of the Society, with about 1200 members
(The result of Miss Wells's meetings ^{added to such} ~~as~~ foundations, ^{as they had been able to} ~~pay~~ for them beforehand).

Yours in hope -
Cath. Inceley.
To Judge Tourgee & family.