

6993

D. D. Merrill Company,

Publishers and Importers,

Fifth and St. Peter Streets, ST. PAUL.

74 Fifth Avenue, NEW YORK.

Miss Anne Jurgis
Dear Madame

New York, May 26, 1893.

I think the style of illustration for "Queen of Hearts" as per your samples will be very effective.

We suggest that the marginal illustrations shall not all be confined to leaves, birds, flowers etc. but that some dainty scenes can also be worked in, for instance just a glimpse of a pond with lilies on the surface, or a fishing outfit (pole, basket etc).

I confess not being artistic enough to suggest proper scenes but am confident your imagination will be equal to it.

The two samples are returned to day by mail.

Truly

Yours sincerely
D. D. Merrill