

Stromsburg Nebraska June 1st 1893.

Mr. Furguee. Dear Sir.
I wish you to accept this as a small token of my deep regard, and admiration, for your firm stand in defence of the honor, as well as the justices of the Union Soldiers. & not finished reading bystanders note our date of May 24th. and you voice my sentiments in full.
I can scarcely realize the fact that this country is so fully in possession of its enemies! and that a man of Reef, instead of Brans. is Chief Executive of this nation. I am not surprised that he declined to be present at the ceremonies on Decoration day.

It's hard to see in expectation. considering how unworthy the notice of any man, who considers this country his home. He feels how much he is despised by the Boys in blue, and wishes that he is attacked through ^{the} office to avenge himself. I am sorry for ~~so~~ many good men that any change can be made to their injury. And glad for ^{the} sake of many more that it can be so. For oh what a lot of miserable fool Democrat soldiers would pay for the folly of voting for such an inhuman thing as G. C. is. I had said if he went fishing this time I hoped he might fall in and drown.

You may think this is rather strong language to use but I feel to tremble over the conduct of G. L. and his clan that whenever I talk to anyone on the subject, I tell all I know of their infernal treason, & hear they boss my little fellows as yet but I purpose to instill this maxim into them. That we were eternally right and they were eternally wrong.

God bless you in your work is my prayer—

I am Respectfully Yours.
