HEADQUARTERS

LOCAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Society of the Army of the Cumberland,

412 Pearl Street.

Local Executive Committee.

GEN. JAMES BARNETT, CHAIRMAN.

GEN. E. S. MEYER,

CAPT. W. C. COWIN,

E. M. HESSLER,

LIEUT. J. M. CARRINGTON, SECRETARY.

CLEVELAND, O., June 12, 1893.

THE 24th Annual Re-union of the SOCIETY OF THE ARMY OF THE CUMBERLAND will be held in the City of Cleveland the 20th and 21st of September next, as per resolution of the Society, at the meeting held in Chicamauga in 1892. It is the desire of the Executive Committee to inform the members and all who served in that grand old Army that not only the resident members, but all of our ex-soldiers and citizens of Cleveland, are anxious to make this re-union one of the most interesting the Society has ever held.

It is the purpose of this early circular to inform the comrades throughout the country, that preliminary steps have been taken, committees appointed, and the work advanced in preparation for this re-union.

A formal invitation, in the usual manner, will be prepared and mailed later. But we desire at this time to issue this informal circular in view of securing a large attendance, and to remind the comrades of the event, realizing that many will attend the World's Fair, and perhaps if reminded of the re-union in time, might arrange their trip accordingly. Everything will be done that possibly can be, to secure reduced rates of fare, and ample preparation made in the way of entertainment, and we take the liberty at this early date to request the comrades to respond, that we may, as far as possible, estimate the attendance.

Headquarters will be at the Hollenden Hotel. All communications may be addressed to J. M. Carrington, Secretary, or members of the Local Executive Committee.

We would like to see every living man who served under "Old Rosy," or "Pap Thomas," Wednesday and Thursday, Sept 20th and 21st, 1893.

J. M. CARRINGTON,
Sec'y Local Executive Com.
