

PETER C. KELLOGG & Co.
AUCTIONEERS & COMMISSION AGENTS IN IMPROVED BREEDS OF HORSES & CATTLE.
107 JOHN STREET.

New York June 21st, 1893. 189

Hon. Albion W. Tourgee,
Mayville, N. Y.

Dear Sir:- I have your kind letter of 16th inst., and myself and family are pleased with its contents. We are about transferring as I have told you from Brooklyn to Port Kent, and when we get settled a little later, Mrs. Kellogg will advise you when it will be convenient to entertain yourself and as many of your family as feel disposed to favor us.

I appreciate your sympathy and advice in the matter of my personal well-being, and think a visit from you will be promotive of the latter, in short I am anticipating pleasure and health from the visit you propose and I hope nothing may intervene to block our plans. I appreciate fully the value of a daughter and daughters worth living for, and I apprehend that as my two daughters will be with us we will be a happy crowd when we get together.

You were very kind in sending me your books. They came yesterday and are on their way to Port Kent, or soon will be. I thought on reading your letter to look up and see what I had of them, but as the set complete is here, I accept them and thank you for them. I also have the circulars asked for.

I am glad to know that the "beastesses" are getting on finely and that "Larcoma" is likely to prove somewhat if not entirely worthy of Lollard, and I trust that the issue may prove the pleasure and profit your daughter anticipates. She is firing no random shot in the crosses the progeny will bear. Somebody's loss in foundering the dam of Lollard may and I trust will, prove much to her advantage. The love and skill that your daughter possesses will doubtless meet with ample reward.

No. 2. A. W. T.

I shall also appreciate the coming book "Out of the Sunset Sea" when favored with it or when within my reach, and notice with pleasure the illustrations by your daughter, which I am confident will be apt. With kindest regards to your family, I remain,

Yours truly,

W. Kellogg