My dear Sir

Your truly welcome favor of 1st inst came duly to hand. Pardon the delay in our response. We have been revising - in fact rebuilding an old house - our old home. Its time waits for no man and the time had come to occupy it we got into it before it was ready and tho' we have progressed rapidly we are with gathering in material for refurnishing still unsettled. To enable Mrs Kellogg to see her way through is the cause of our delay.

If the first week in August will suit you we will be happy receive yourself and daughter, or such of your family as may be pleased to favor us. If not then when later will it suit your convenience.

Mrs. Kellogg will add a word and I am most truly

We heartily unite with Mr Kellogg in wishing to receive a visit from yourself and other members of your family, and trust we will not be denied that pleasure.

Cordially yours
Dennis B. Kellogg
