Allison W. Tourgee,

Dear Sir;

I have bided my time patiently, since your letter of a year since, stating that a piece of work presented your giving us the article we requested. But now, I trust that the three sample copies of our magazine which accompany this will interest you in the work we have so much at heart, and that you will find time to pen something for us. A personal reminiscence of your boyhood — addressed to adults — not to boys — would suit us well.

By the way —

I may advance one reason for your obliging me - my dear Sir - for I was one of the staunchest admirers and supporters of that excellent "Continent" which to the sorrow of American literature, was relinquished by its original managers.

Hoping to hear from you favorably, I am,

Yours Very Sincerely,
Florence Hull.
