Mr Albion W. Tourgee Esq.

Mayville-on-Chautauque N.Y.

Dear Sir:

Allow me address the following words to you, Sir, in admiration of your notable, eloquent & elegant article "The parting of the ways," published in the illustrated columns of the "Daily Inter Ocean" of Chicago Ill. The expressed sentences are just and can proudly show your patriotism as those that fell defending the most sacred emblem of honor, justice, towards those that highly deserves it; and bravery in the field of liberty as being an American of true origin.

Thank you very much Sir, and hope you'll continue to correct such writings of unbase foundations.

I remain Sir with the deepest affection

your truly servant
