The Hon. Albion W. Lawrence,
Wayville, N. Y.

My dear Sir:

Pardon my offense in again intruding upon your time. The inland check is but a trifle, still, should any steps be taken in its way of justice to Miller's widow, and God grant that may, it will help at least a little.

I start next week for the sea shore for my vacation and as I may preach in two cities of Massachusetts, I am free taking my sermon on this Chenabow, remembers you with gratified affection and speaks of your name as a honor-able - word in many a southern home.

them with me and as I am sure of audience in back care of from eight hundred to a thousand people. I shall inform my opportunity. If the horrible atrocities perpetrated upon a citizen of this state is allowed to go unnoticed by our state officers it will be one of the dark spots on the page that tell the story of this state's history.
I am surprised to find how generally even by Republicans here, the colored man is looked down upon as a slave and an inferior.

Would you mind my telling you that a colored girl who has been in our family for the last five years, formerly from
