

A.W.T. PAPERS Aug 1893

CHAUTAUQUA COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY 2013

CHAS. W. DABB.

HORATIO N. MAY.

THE

“COMMERCIAL”

HOTEL,

Cor. Lake and Dearborn Streets.

The Commercial Hotel Co.,

C. W. DABB & CO.,

Proprietors.

Chicago Ill. Aug. 14 1893

Judge Tourgee

Dear Sir enclosed
in this letter is a cut from this morning's Chicago Times
Printed as an Editorial

Reader of the By Standards
Notes

Truicly

Two more negroes were lynched at Boston, S. C., Sunday for criminally assaulting a white woman. If the bulk of the colored people possessed the high order of intellect attributed to them by the professional and editorial negro lovers they would have learned, ere this, to respect the sanctity of femininity. For those who are unwilling or unable to learn the lesson the horrible fate meted out to the perpetrators of this bestial crime is none too severe.