NUNDA, N. Y., August 1, 1893.

Comrade:

The Tenth Re-union of our Association will be held at Chicago, September 8th and 9th, 1893.

Headquarters have been established at the Niagara Hotel, Jackson street, between Michigan and Wabash avenues. This hotel has 600 rooms, is kept by a comrade. Rooms can be had at One Dollar per day. There is a fine Restaurant connected with it, where meals can be obtained at reasonable rates. It is centrally located and easy of access from the Fair Ground.

There are also two other Hotels near by—the Leland and Wellington; the one next door, the other across the street, where board by the day can be procured.

Any Comrade desirous of obtaining board in private family should write at once to the chairman of the local committee, O. C. Rogers, 47 Board of Trade, Chicago, Ill.

The business meeting of the Association will be held September 8th, two p. m.; there will be a Camp Fire in the evening.

The 9th is to be G. A. R. Day at the Fair.

Sunday, the 10th, the resident comrades will entertain us in the city.

No pains will be spared to make this the best Re-union we have ever had. Notice has been received that most of our Comrades in the west will be there to meet us, many of whom we have not seen since the war.

It is believed that at this date, the Railroad fare will be so reduced as to place this meeting within reach of all. I have received several inquiries as to our proceedings of 1892. I will state that I have them ready to be published, but there is not money enough in the treasury to pay the postage even on this circular to you, so few paid their dues in 1892 and only three thus far for 1893. If you want them still, send in your dues, and let us see if we can't get enough to publish this and Chicago together.

B. S. COFFIN, Sec'y.
